LEADING SUCCESSFUL CHANGE IN FINANCE

Friday 20th April 2018 at 8.00am
Hilton: Gatwick Airport

Grafton Banks Finance are delighted to invite you to this exclusive presentation and roundtable discussion.

Andy Jones, Executive Coach and Change Consultant at Gwella Consulting will start proceedings with a 20-minute presentation, followed by a roundtable discussion on how to successfully initiate and lead change in the finance industry. During the morning Andy will provide expert guidance on delivering change and the pitfalls to avoid.

Open exclusively to CFOs and Finance Directors, this event will be conducted under Chatham House rules and nothing we discuss will leave the room, to ensure that participants feel able to share thoughts and ideas openly.

Andy is an Executive Coach, Chartered Accountant and trusted expert in finance, treasury and procurement transformation. He qualified as an Executive Coach with Henley Business School and has previously held various board level roles with companies such as Credit Suisse, Macquarie Bank and Fidelity International where he was European Finance Director.

Over the last 10 years he has led transformational change programmes across multiple locations including India, Luxembourg, Hong Kong, USA and Switzerland. He has recently established Gwella Consulting, a coaching and change consultancy to support CFOs and their teams and is currently leading a change programme at NewDay, a private equity owned credit card company.
